MEDICAL RESEARCH SUBJECTS'
BILL OF RIGHTS

The rights below are the rights of every person who is asked to be in a research study.
As an experimental subject I have the following rights:

- 1) Be informed of the nature and purpose of the experiment.
- 2) Be given an explanation of the procedures to be followed in the medical experiment, and any drug or device to be utilized.
- 3) Be given a description of any attendant discomforts and risks reasonably to be expected from the experiment.
- 4) Be given an explanation of any benefits to the subject reasonably to be expected from the experiment, if applicable.
- 5) Be given a disclosure of any appropriate alternative procedures, drugs or devices that might be advantageous to the subject, and their relative risks and benefits.
- 6) Be informed of the avenues of medical treatment, if any, available to the subject after the experiment if complications should arise.
- 7) Be given the opportunity to ask any questions concerning the experiment or the procedures involved.
- 8) Be instructed that consent to participate in the medical experiment may be withdrawn at any time and the subject may discontinue participation in the medical experiment without prejudice.
- 9) Be given a copy of the signed and dated written consent form.
- 10) Be given the opportunity to decide to consent or not to consent to a medical experiment without the intervention of any elements of force, fraud, deceit, duress, coercion, or undue influence on the subject's decision.
